

Trade Policy: Ten Things to Watch

Jill O'Donnell

Tri-Chamber Federal Legislative Summit

August 12, 2021

CLAYTON YEUTTER INSTITUTE OF INTERNATIONAL TRADE AND FINANCE

IN OUR GRIT, OUR GLORY™

Our People

Jill O'Donnell
Director

Jacy Thoman
Assistant Director

John Beghin
Mike Yanney Yeutter Institute Chair, College of Agricultural Sciences and Natural Resources

Matthew Schaefer
*Haggart & Work
Professor of International Trade Law*

Edward Balistreri
*Duane Acklie Yeutter
Institute Chair, College of Business*

“Worthwhile things are usually difficult to achieve, but we ought to go about doing it. And, we ought to have the intensity of commitment to bring it about, and I am convinced that we can do so.”

-Clayton Yeutter, 1988
Brookings Institute address, on the U.S.-Canada FTA

“Report participants in urban Lincoln and rural North Platte agreed that what impacts the agricultural production complex impacts all Nebraskans.”

FIGURE 8
Interview and Focus Group Area

“The message on trade conveyed by those throughout Nebraska’s agricultural production complex was remarkably consistent: the more international trade the better.”

1. Expiration of Trade Promotion Authority (TPA)

2. Trade Negotiations – toward narrower “mini-deals?”

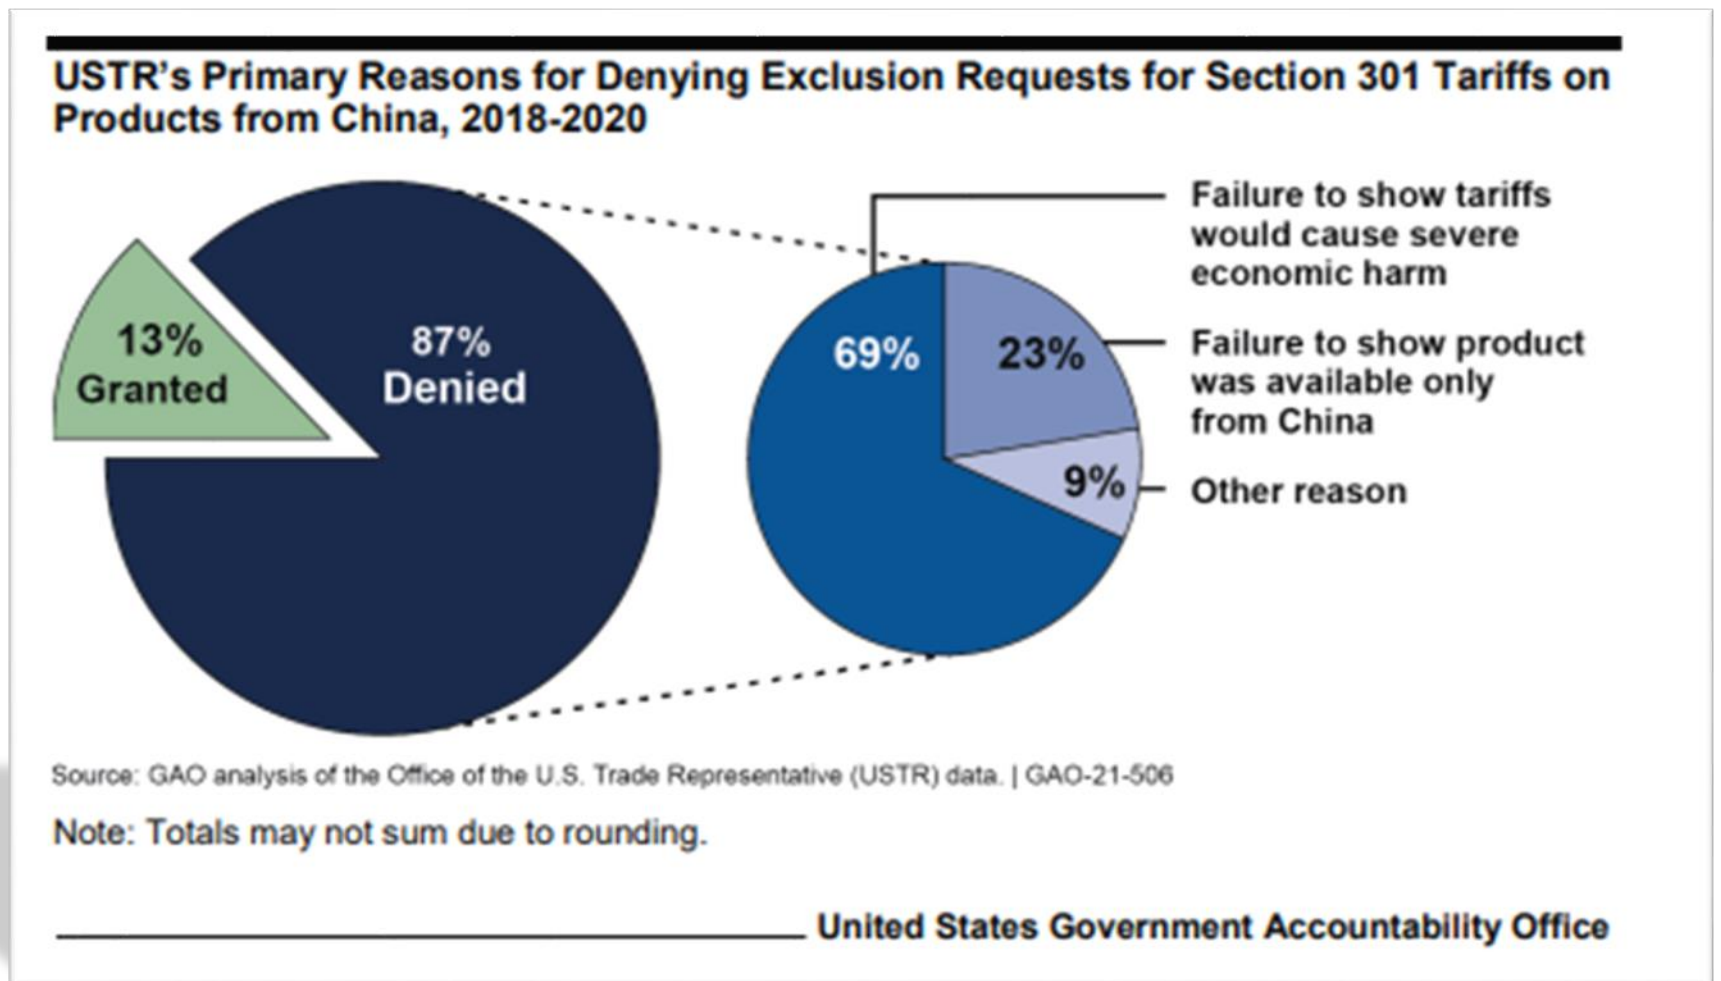

3. Trade Executive Agreements

4. Tariffs and Tariff Exclusions

5. The World Trade Organization Appellate Body collapsed...do we miss it?

6. What is a “public body?” ...and other questions about World Trade Organization reform

7. What's Going on with Trade in Services?

8. What is the Rest of the World Doing?

South Korea says it will work to join CPTPP this year

January 12, 2021 at 4:33 PM

Peru's Govt welcomes Congress' ratification of CPTPP trade agreement

RCEP Agreement: Another Wake-up Call for the United States on Trade

U.S., Mexico settle first labor complaint under USMCA

9. U.S.-Mexico-Canada Agreement (USMCA) Implementation

10. An Expanding Trade Agenda

Contact

Jill O'Donnell, Director
Clayton Yeutter Institute of International Trade and Finance
jodonnell2@unl.edu | 402-472-2119

Stay in touch

@YeutterUNL

go.unl.edu/yeutter-updates